Congratulations to our stars of the week

10th Jan 2020

Class 1: Rupert and Annabelle

Class 2:

Jimbob and Jacob

Headteacher's Award: Alice

Congratulations to Daniel who recently achieved a Merit in the Music Performance Piano - Pre Preparatory Exam, well done!

Happy New Year to you all. The staff would like to thank you for your kind words, cards and gifts received for Christmas which were very much appreciated. We hope you had a lovely Christmas break with your family and the children are now ready for the Spring Term.

Primary School Admissions 2020

The final date to apply for this September's reception class is next Wednesday (15 January.) To apply visit Lancashire County Council admissions page

Chippy Day

Thursday is the very popular Chippy Day! Children do not need to bring a packed lunch to school on Thursday, just a drink for lunchtime.

PE Kits and Trainers

Please ensure that your child has a full PE kit (including pumps) in school at all times . Please check that the trainers they have in school are the correct size as many seem to have had a growing spurt!

Class 1 - Animals

If children in Class 1 have any toys (soft or plastic NOT LIVING) which relate to hot or cold countries they are more than welcome to bring them into school. Eg Penguins, Polar Bears, Snakes etc (

Milk Money

Milk money of £6 is now due for the Spring Term if your child wishes to have milk at break time please send £6 in a sealed envelope or make cheques payable to St Mary's Catholic Primary School.
