Claughton St Mary's

Congratulations to our Stars of the Week

Class 1: Jack for super blending and segmenting and Tilly for her wonderful Maths work.

Class 2: Henry for always being kind and polite and Sophie for writing a persuasive letter.

A very Happy Birthday to Charlie who was 9 on Wednesday 11th November

Remembrance Day

Although our Remembrance Day service was very different this year it was heart-warming to see all the children respectfully paying tribute to servicemen and women past and present. The year 6 children beautifully recited parts of the In Flanders Field poem and Class 2's hand painted poppy stones along with a fantastic homemade poppy wreath by Ella and her sister were later laid in the memorial garden. Why not take a look, but be carefully the path can be slippery.

Reception Children Shout Out!

If the Reception children have a stripy t-shirt (or any Pirate like top or any t-shirt that's not red) that they could bring into school by Tuesday it would be appreciated. I think they might be hunting for treasure!

The C word!

Not Covid but Christmas! We usually don't mention the "C word" just yet as the level of excitement quite rightly escalates but we just want to let you know that Christmas is definitely not cancelled this year. It will be different but we are still planning on panto, party food and games, something definitely to look forward to on Thursday 17th December.
