A message from the Parish Church

We held our first synodal gathering before the 7.30 p.m. Mass this last Wednesday. The topic for discussion revolved around our community and there were many and various views expressed. We will build on them in our second gathering, which will take place after the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, 6 February, with coffee, tea and delicious cakes and biscuits on hand to keep us going. The subject will be "participation" and we hope that as many of you as can make it will join us. Children (and their opinions) will be welcome. There's no need to come to the 9 a.m. Mass; join us in the Church at 9.45 if you want. We are looking forward to this next stage in our community message's journey to the synod. You will probably find it more interesting than you expected!

By the way, the synodal process doesn't require you to fill in any survey forms or answer difficult questions yourself. The Parish will send in a report on our discussions, so all you and your family need to do is be there on the 6th at 9.45 a.m. and listen and, if you want to, express your own views. That is the purpose of the gatherings. There's no formality, please come along and everyone is welcome.
