

At St. Mary's our Whole-School Maths vision is that:

- everyone is confident with maths
- mistakes help us learn
- we value all student contributions; right or wrong
- the process is the most important element
- we should have a range of mathematical strategies and equipment to use appropriately and employ
- knowing multiplication tables and number facts is crucial
- we should frequently make connections between maths topics
- we should relate maths to real life situations